KIM SOO KARATE OF BAYTOWN NEW STUDENT GUIDE 2016

Dear New Student and/or Parent,

Thank you for choosing our Dojang for your experience in the martial arts. We are a traditional martial arts system teaching a comprehensive self-defense program while building character and confidence in our students. Chayon-Ryu, founded in 1968 by 10th degree black belt Korean Grandmaster Kim Pyung-Soo, who came to the United States to share his knowledge of the martial arts. Chayon-Ryu, or Natural Way, is a system of martial arts developed to sustain its practitioner from the inside and uses natural movements and abilities to allow freedom-of-flow of techniques and balanced routines. Its philosophy of non-violence enables the individual to practice daily without the need for mere speed, power, and the lure of competition. Chayon-Ryu students do not participate in tournaments. Chayon-Ryu is a system of teaching classical martial arts. Six Asian martial arts go to make up the Chayon-Ryu Natural Way system: Karate, Kung-Fu, Taekwondo, Judo/Jujitsu, Aikido/Hapkido, Bong Sul.

Teaching Staff:

Founding Grandmaster, Chong Jae Nim, Kim Pyung-Soo, 10th Dan Black Belt (oversees the system and rank exams).

Chief Instructor, Kyo Sa Nim, Melissa L. Nichols, 1st Dan Black Belt. (ten years teaching experience)

Grandmaster Kim Soo, Kyosanim Nichols, Jokyonim Dabney

Saturdays	Kid Tigers	1:15pm-1:45pm	Kyosanim/ Jokyonim
	COMBINED TRAINING (all levels)	1:45pm-2:45pm	Kyosanim/ Jokyonim

Colored belt students may attend any class times. Kid Tigers may only attend their scheduled time (this is done for safety). Beginners may attend combined training times.

Tuition and Fees: Tuition is due at the beginning of each month. *Terms: While we do not have a contract with automatic billing on your bank account; once you register, tuition is monthly, unless you formally withdraw. This means, tuition is charged for each month, even if you are absent. Chayon-Ryu students may attend as many classes as are offered per month for the $65 rate. ***Students who wish to pay by the class may use the private lesson tuition rate.****

Students who have not paid tuition will not be able to participate in class, or qualify for rank examinations. In the past, children dropped off by parents, without having paid, were required to sit the class out and not participate. In order to avoid this hassle, we use Square Invoicing, which automatically sends invoices at the beginning of each month so parents/students know it is time to pay dues. PLEASE PROVIDE US WITH A VALID EMAIL ADDRESS FOR THIS PURPOSE. We accept credit cards via Square, and PayPal for online payments as well as personal checks, cash, and money orders. You can even set up automatic payments via our pay pal service. A $15 late fee is charged for payments made after the tenth day of the month.

Kid Tigers tuition is $52. Registration is $15.

Regular monthly tuition is $65. Registration fee is $15. We offer discounts for the following who qualify: Group Friends and Families-(4 or more people) Sibling Discounts (2nd & 3rd child discounts), Senior Citizens. Ask about our enrollment specials.

Private Lesson tuition is $25 for 1 hour. $12.50 for each additional half hour.

Black Belt Club Membership is $15 per class. Registration fee is $5. Only for green belt level and above.

Dojang Rules & Etiquette: The dojang or training hall is revered in traditional martial arts as a sacred space set aside for the study of “the way.” There is a specific set of rules for behavior inside the dojang. In order for students to get the most out of their training, and to keep a safe environment, these rules must be adhered to by everyone white belt to black belt.

1. Use the restroom and drink water BEFORE class. If you have an emergency, bow out and take care of it. Do not interrupt the class.
2. No shoes. We train barefoot except with special permission from the instructor. If you have special needs requiring footwear, talk to the instructor. No sock feet on the training hall floor.
3. Bowing. We bow when we enter or exit the dojang area, to senior students, instructors and the flags, and at various times during class. Bowing shows respect.
4. No dressing in the dojang area. Put jacket and belt on before entering. You must be ready to train when you enter.
5. Uniform and person must be clean! No odor or dirty hands for feet, no cologne, or cigarette smoke odor on dobok. This is a contact art, we are very close to each other, be respectful of classmates. TIE LONG HAIR UP!
6. No horse play, running or talking out of turn.
7. We refer to each other as “Sir,” or “Ma’am” inside the dojang. We use proper manners and a good attitude. No outbursts, temper tantrums, or negative attitudes will be tolerated.
8. No free sparring, breaking or teaching other students without instructor permission. Ever.
9. If you are late, line up behind the lowest ranked student, bow in and join the back line of the class. Explain to your instructor after class why you were late. Do not interrupt a class that is in session.
10. Bring all equipment to every class. You may use it, you may not, but part of the training is, to always be ready. This includes uniform, sparring pads, and jang bong and dan bong.
11. Learn the dojang hun, and abide by its principles in the dojang.
12. If you are going to be absent, let the instructor know ahead of time, via text, email, or phone.
